How to get to Hotel Spero

The Bay Area is served by three airports: San Francisco (SFO), San Jose (SJC), and Oakland (OAK). We strongly recommend flying into SFO if possible, as it is closest to the venue and easiest for access by public transportation. Uber and Lyft serve all of the airports and are easy to use for door-to-door service.

Public transportation directions:

From SFO:

Follow signs to BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit). You likely will have to take the AirTrain depending on which terminal you come from. Take the red or yellow line to the Powell Street BART stop.

From OAK:

Follow signs to BART, and take the green line to Powell St (~45 minutes).

From SJC:

Public transportation options aren't great. Take Uber or Lyft, or reach out to us about a pickup.

From the Peninsula:

Take Caltrain to 4th and King, it is about a 20 minute walk. Or transfer to BART at Millbrae station and travel as above.

For folks with cars, there is a pay lot next door to the hotel.

Walking from BART to Hotel Spero is just a couple of blocks.
